SWING UNMASKED

THE AGRICULTURAL RIOTS
OF 1830 TO 1832
AND THEIR WIDER IMPLICATIONS

edited by

MICHAEL HOLLAND

This first publication of the Family & Community Historical Research Society's publishing arm, FACHRS Publications, with a launch date of 21 May 2005, comprises a collection of eleven essays based on the Society's recent national research project into the Swing Riots and refer to incidents in Surrey, Shropshire, Essex, Derbyshire, Buckinghamshire, Berkshire, and Norfolk, as well as essays of a more general nature, a consolidated bibliography, two appendices detailing alphabetically the victims and protesters with their parishes and offences, a surnames index and a subject index.

A CD-ROM containing databases of law breakers and protesters from the Swing protest era contain 3,521 names of offenders and victims and 3,318 recorded events that complements the book is also available.
